As your edge estate expands, differing security operations becomes crucial. Organizations need to make effective decisions to balance the emerging data. This infographic outlines the key considerations that help you compare the priorities and challenges of IT and OT professionals in deploying, managing, and securing edge infrastructure.

State of Edge Operations: What do IT and OT practitioners care about and how can they align

$ key considerations for edge operations

OT professionals procure edge infrastructure faster. They also have a shorter time to set up and complete tasks. deploying core traffic tasks. Enabling zero touch infrastructure can accelerate and edge time to value of edge deployments for both IT and OT tasks.

Deploying new edge applications is time-consuming

Both IT and OT face challenges in edge deployment

Both IT & OT professionals have different edge investment considerations

The way forward with Dell NativeEdge

To learn more about Dell NativeEdge, click here.