

Residency Services

Certified technical experts for

Business Outcomes

- ✓ Design and architect new technology platforms to accommodate business growth
- ✓ Ease the transition to and maximize the value of new technology
- ✓ Increase resiliency and minimize security risks
- ✓ Improve workforce productivity, innovation and collaboration
- ✓ Enhance cloud application productivity

Offered Onsite or Remote, with 1-week minimum duration

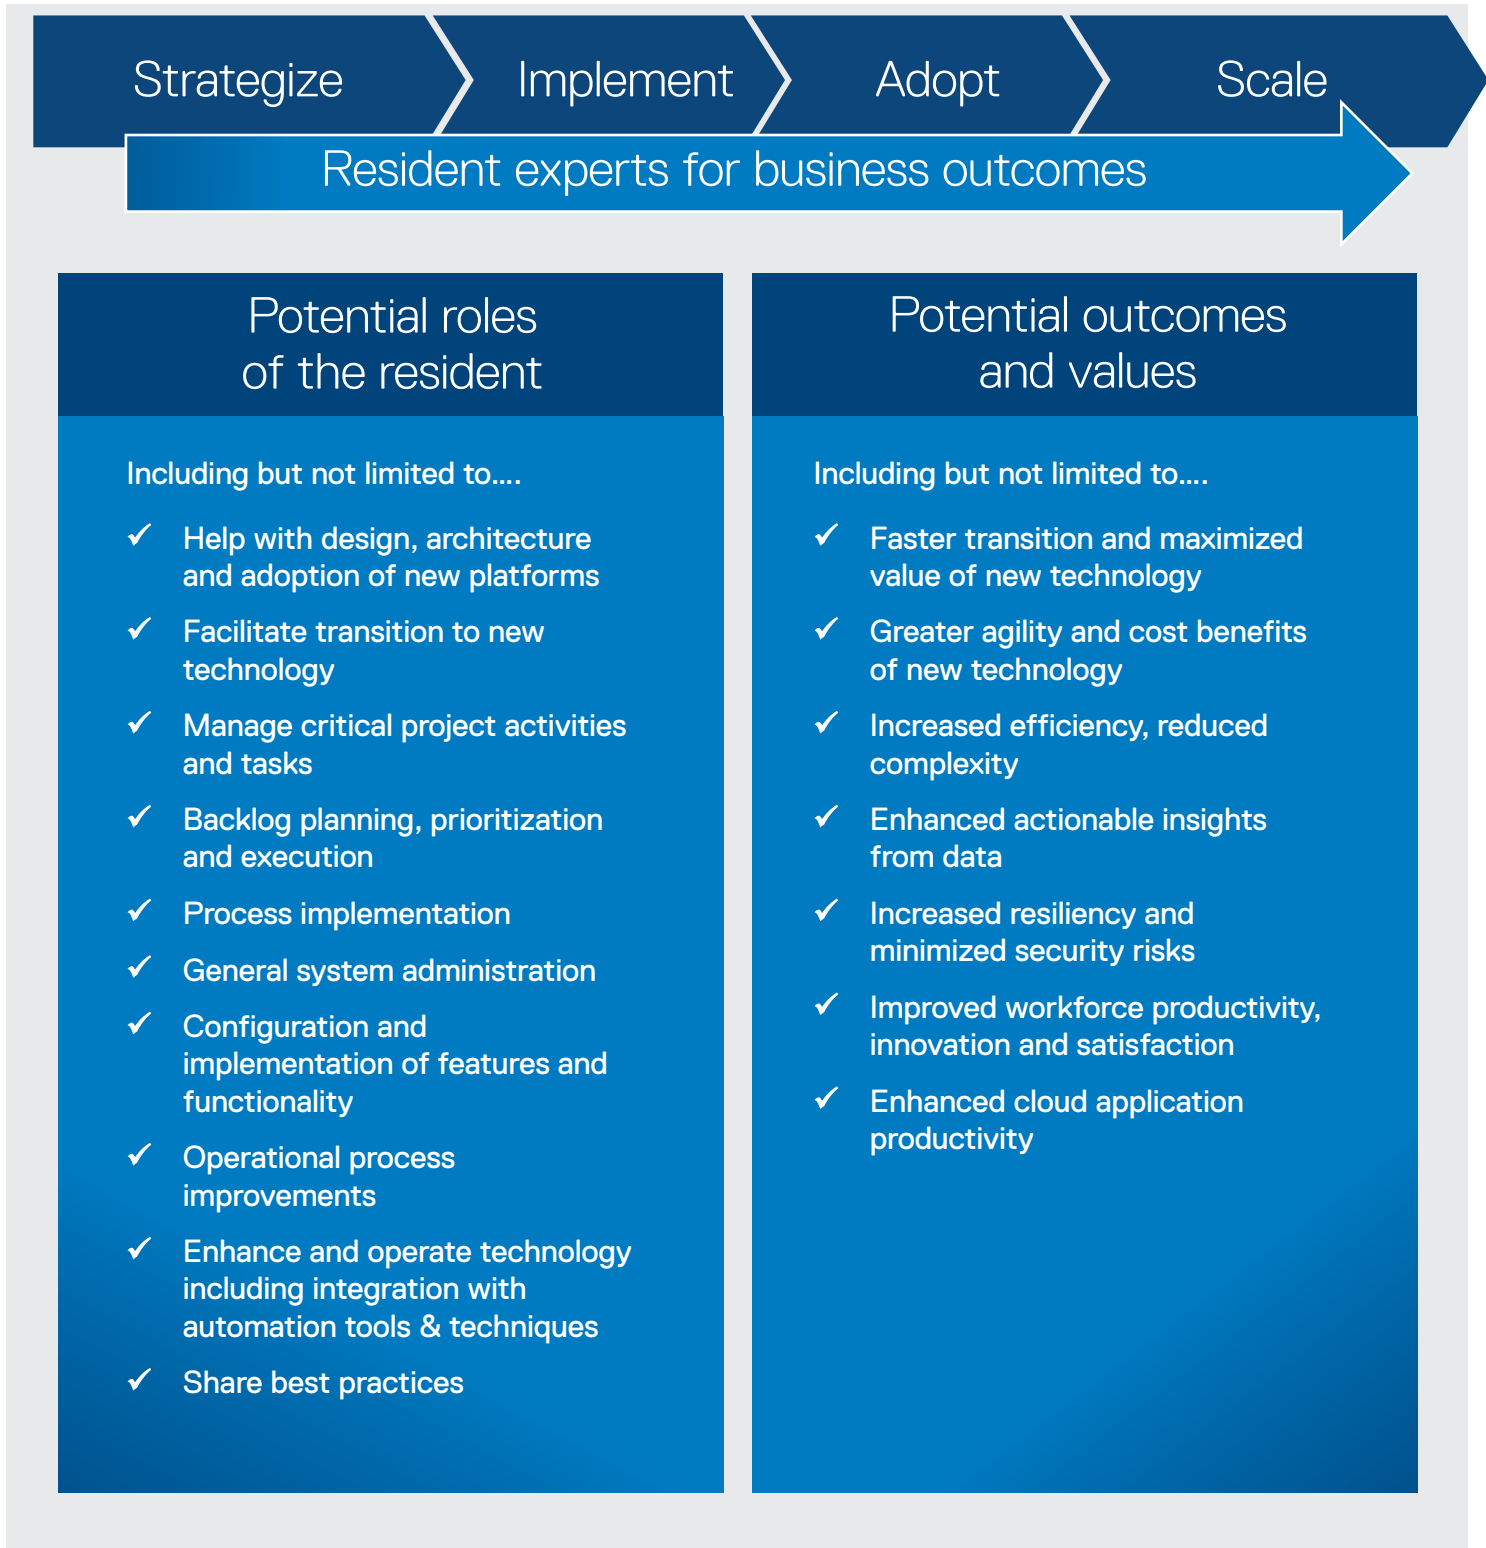

Certified technical experts help design and drive specific outcomes that improve processes and accommodate business growth

Directed by you, certified technologists with validated expertise and skills act as an extension of your IT staff, enabling you to realize the full value of your digital environment.

From help with design and architecture of new platforms and facilitating adoption of new technology, to introducing operational process improvements and sharing best practices, experts are dedicated to the unique needs of your business. With specialization across a variety of objectives to help you drive targeted transformation outcomes across a variety of business objectives.

-
- Multi-Cloud
 - Applications & Data
 - Resiliency & Security
 - Modern Workforce
 - Program Management
-

Certified experts drive business outcomes throughout the lifecycle

For more information visit DellTechnologies.com/Residency or contact your Dell Technologies representative